

How You Can Help

- Attend regular HRC meetings on the fourth Wednesday of every month. (Find a copy of the most current meeting agenda at www.chandleraz.gov).
- Report alleged discrimination or prejudice.
- Attend events sponsored by the Human Relations Commission.
- Volunteer to help or educate about diversity.

You can make a difference by getting involved!!

Chandler Human Relations Commission

Our Volunteer Commission

- The Chandler Human Relations Commission was established in 1997.
- The eleven members broadly represent the diverse demographics of the community.
- The commission acts as an advisory board to the city council by recommending ways to encourage mutual respect and understanding among the many groups of people who live, work and spend time within the community.
- Meetings are usually held on the 4th Wednesday of every month at 6:00 p.m.

Contact Us

Learn more about the Human Relations Commission by visiting us online at www.chandleraz.gov/diversity or contact Diversity Office staff:

Leah Powell
Community Development & Diversity Manager
480.782.4352 ph

Niki Tapia
Community Resource Coordinator
480.782.2214 ph

The Chandler Human Relations Commission promotes mutual respect and inclusion in Chandler.

Chandler • Arizona
Where Values Make The Difference

Our Mission

- To promote mutual respect and inclusion in Chandler.
- To work toward the elimination of prejudice and discrimination within the Community.

Indian Art Market

Our Strategies

1. Educate the Community about Chandler's Diversity

Goal: To improve Chandler's quality of life through proactive participation of diversity celebrations and awareness events.

2. Engage City and State Stakeholders and Stay Informed of Issues

Goal: Recognizing the importance of positive, professional and enduring relationships, the Chandler Human Relations Commission (HRC) will collaborate and/or partner with other City and State groups to provide diversity awareness and inclusion to the citizens of Chandler.

3. Collaborate with School and Youth Stakeholders

Goal: Develop and reinforce relationships between schools and youth organizations encouraging mutual trust, respect and cooperation. Only with our ability to work in partnership with schools and youth organizations will we be able to fulfill the mission of the Chandler Human Relations Commission (HRC).

4. Promote an Increasing Awareness of the HRC to the Greater Chandler Community

Goal: To encourage the exchange of information and create an atmosphere that promotes appreciation and inclusion of Chandler's rich community diversity.

Cinco de Mayo Chihuahua Races

Calendar of Events

• January

Celebration of Unity
Multicultural Festival

• February

Unity Walk
Black History

• March

Cesar Chavez Teacher Recognition Dinner

• April

Holocaust Remembrance Events

• May

Cinco de Mayo Chihuahua Races

• September

Hispanic Heritage Month
Sister City Concert

• October

Ms. Indian Arizona Scholarship Program
Indian Art Market

• November

Dia de los Muertos